LOCAL NEWS.

Election, next Tuesday, Nov. 8th.

Reese's Chapel M. P. Church, is offered for sale in this issue.

Robert Williams, the boy orator will lecture at Accomac C. H., tonight.

The Board of Supervisors will have their next meeting at Accomac C. H., on the 11th of November.

Mr. Geo. F. Parramore claims the honor of having laid the first brick in our new clock office.

Voters, remember, that a vote for Parker and Weaver next Tuesday is a vote for Mahone.

Mrs. M. M. Duhurst will preach at Conquest M. P. Church next Temperanceville, to-morrow afternoon at 3 p.m.

The grand jury which convened at Accomac C. H., last Monday, rendered five indictments against parties for violating the Local Option laws.

A correspondent from Cashville writes us: "You can safely put old Stutthill Novek down as a liar, and willkins on the 8th day of Nov. next."

There is probably no large city in this continent where living can be had so cheaply as at Baltimore. The terms at the Maitly H. use fully illustrate that fact.

Norfolk's little Lamb was advertised to speak at Greenhill, on Friday night, but Hon. John W. G. Blackstone was sent in pursuit of him by the chairman of the Democratic Committee.

Parker and Weaver, Democrats! You may have noticed that they welcomed John S. Wise to Accomac C. H., last Monday and not Daniel, Belmont or Stutthill. Funny Democrats, "ain't they?"

Advisers received from every part of the county are to the effect that there is no dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks. Go to the polls gentlemen and let who you will vote right we have never doubted.

Our cheap column headed "Business Notices" contains this week more fresh matter of local importance. Always read it and send us an advertisement for that column—it only costs five cents a line.

The personal property of Edward T. Downing, deceased, will be sold at public auction, Wednesday, November 8th, by Dr. J. E. Mapp, administrator, as will be seen by advertisement which appears in this issue.

The sale of the valuable woodland belonging to James Walker's devisees was not made last Saturday on account of inclement weather. It will be sold next Saturday at 3 p. m. in front of Parker's hotel, Onancock.

For dress goods, ladies' and misses' dresses and jackets, and ready-made clothing for men, youths, boys and children, call on Yates & Mason, Lee-mont. They have a large stock and at rock bottom prices.

Mr. James F. Gunter, son of Judge B. T. Gunter, for several weeks past under the treatment of physicians at Philadelphia, returned home this week. We regret to be unable to report any improvement in his health.

It is now absolutely certain that the word has been passed down the line and that every negro will be at the polls next Tuesday and will cast his vote for Independent(?) candidates. Democrats who know your duty, will you do it?

The Reclimates will have a fair and festival at Sanford M. E. Church, South on the 28th day of December. The early announcement is made by request, to prevent appointments of a similar character which would conflict therewith.

Parks & Causey, Leemont, are closing out a great many goods at reduced rates, regardless of cost. The most of their stock being entirely new and bought for "spot cash," now is the time to secure bargains if you will call on them.

Read the advertisement of B. W. Mears & Son, Keller station, if you want cheap food. They have unsurpassed facilities for buying on the best terms and are too wide awake to merchants not to price their goods so as to make it to your interest to deal with them.

For fine millinery goods and notions call on Mrs. E. J. Savage, Belle Haven. She is just home from the city and with her well known reputation for pleasing her customers cannot fail to attract attention and receive numerous calls from purchasers.

The Independent candidates for the Legislature tell you that they are Democrats, and yet would never have been heard of as candidates if they had not been promised the entire Republican support. Voters can you be caught by such chaff? Verily by their acts you should judge them.

Mr. H. C. Doughty of the firm of Phillips Bros. & Co., Baltimore, will visit our merchants next week and offer them merchandise at such low prices as our hands will most cheerfully give. Our merchants will agree with us that there is no better firm in the city of Baltimore or one that has a cleverer representative.

Mr. L. Floyd Nock, administrator of John C. Grinnalls, deceased, will sell at public auction on Saturday, November 12th at his late residence in Custis Neck, the whole of the personal property of the decedent, consisting in part of household and kitchen furniture, farm implements, horses, cattle, hogs, corn, fodder, potato-beds and trunks &c. Sale will commence promptly at 10 a.m.

Chloroform.
Capt. R. E. Swift has been awarded the contract by the U. S. & B. R. R. to rebuild steamboat wharf at this place.

Mr. D. J. Wheaton has leased the Armstrong hotel in Baltimore, and reports that it is being run successfully.

Five new names were registered last Saturday, all good Democratic voters, who are not taking any Independentism or Mahoneism in "theirs."

Our townsman, Mr. S. J. Mumford, has been engaged by Wallace & Co., Cape Charles City, to run an oyster-shucking establishment this winter and left for that place a few days ago.

Mr. Wm. C. Payne, formerly of this place, is now connected with a hardware store in Norfolk, and J. W. Fields, Jr., son of Dr. Fields has been engaged by a hardware store in Philadelphia.

Recent arrivals at the Atlantic: M. H. Pope, Pocomoke city; J. W. Andrews, F. R. Gunby, George A. Trice, Baltimore; Mrs. George Evans, Mystic Bridge; Capt. Joseph Pratt, Franklin City, Md.

Capt. George C. Lewis, who was stabbed by W. T. Dryden some weeks ago has been removed to hospital, Philadelphia. As soon as he is strong enough, the physicians report that they will operate on him so as to be able to treat the internal wound.

Mr. J. Emory Massey, son of the proprietor of Atlantic hotel, Ocean City, Md., and Miss Sally Hudson, niece of Mr. D. J. Wheaton, of this place, were married at the bride's residence, the last night, Rev. Mr. Watkins officiating. After a tour of several weeks in the northern cities, they propose to make their home with us.

Our three milliners have all returned from the city with large and handsome stock of goods, and are being liberally patronized by the ladies, and a peep into our churches now of a Sunday morning will convince you that our ladies will compare favorably with the prettiest anywhere, and that our milliners know how to show them off to advantage.

Our people were disappointed last week in not having the Democratic orators with them as announced, but the merits of Ewell and Wilkins were discussed very freely by those in attendance, and the ballot box will show next Tuesday a large majority for them. Our speakers are expected, however, before election day, and when they do come will meet with a rousing reception.

Onancock.
Mrs. E. E. Miles, is critically ill, and requires the attention of two physicians.

John S. Tyler, representing the Harlem Paper Company, of Baltimore, has been in town during past week.

Master Robert Williams, the juvenile temperance orator, spoke to a crowded house in Onancock, Tuesday night.

Capt. John Parramore died suddenly on last Saturday, at his home in Chesapeake, at the advanced age of 93 years.

John T. Arlington, died at his residence, in Shiloh Hill, on Friday last, of a complication of diseases, aged about 50 years.

Hon. Richard F. Beirne spoke to a large Democratic audience in the Town Hall, Monday night. He devoted much of his time to a discussion of the tariff, and created a fine impression among his hearers as a polished and eloquent speaker.

Frank P. Brent addressed the citizens of Guilford, last Saturday evening. He was anxious to meet the Republican candidates who were, he learned, on the war path, but they having discovered his whereabouts, failed to find their appointment at that place, and struck a bee line for Onancock.

Democratic Rally at Accomac C. H.
On last Monday, in suite of the bad weather the Democratic rally at Accomac C. H., came off as announced, and was a grand success. The people in large numbers from all parts of the county were present, and greeted the distinguished speakers Senator J. N. Stubbs, Col. Richard F. Beirne and U. S. Senator Daniel with tumultuous applause, which left no doubt that the cause of Democracy had suffered no detriment in the effects of the great bulk of her people. The court-house was not only crammed full but many even hung around the windows, despite the warring elements, to catch the patriotic utterances as they fell from the lips of the eminent speakers. Stubbs and Beirne made excellent speeches and were applauded to the echo, but the reception to Major Daniel is indescribable. His speech was one of the most powerful ever heard here and so effective that the Democrats who listened to it can doubt as to its duty. The great benefits accruing to the Democratic party, portrayed by the speaker, in its continued supremacy in State and national affairs, his arraignment of Mahone, his appeal to all true Virginians to stand by the party, by voting for Ewell and Wilkins impressed our people beyond measure. At its conclusion, with the eloquent and patriotic sentiments of the speakers still ringing in the ears of the people assembled, Hon. John S. Wise appeared upon the scene, cheered by about a dozen Republicans and was greeted with cheers for Daniel. These with about fifty Democrats who were unable to escape because of the rain which was falling in torrents made up the audience, and the latter besides cheering for Daniel were so unattractive that Johnnie got mad and said some ugly things. His speech to an audience so unattractive naturally fell flat, and Johnnie after ineffectual remarks of about twenty minutes, devoted principal to the great benefit of being received so unkindly at the home of his ancestors departed, and doubtless would have been happier if he had not come as a guest to a fest to which he was not invited. A division of time was asked for by Mr. Wise but the Democrats were under no obligations to furnish him with an audience and refused. Subsequent developments proved also that the refusal therefore was entirely proper. The Republicans got left and of course are not happy.

Since Monday, addresses have also been made by the eminent speakers at Onancock, Belle Haven and Temperanceville, and the cheering news received from each of these places, and their views were well received and good results in the interest of Democracy.

Public School Notice.
The regular annual meeting of the electoral county school board, (composed of county judge, commonwealth's attorney and county superintendent) will be held on the 28th day of November, (count day) for the purpose of filling vacancies in district boards of school trustees which occur annually on the 1st day of November. Petitions for one new trustee in each district board, or for continuance of old officers will then be in order.

JOHN E. MAPP,
Co. Supt. Schools.

Democratic Speaking.
The following appointments for public speaking are announced by authority: J. W. G. BLACKSTONE and OTHERS, New Church, Saturday, Nov. 5th, 7 p.m.; MAPSVILLE, Saturday, Nov. 5th, 7 p.m.; FRANK P. BRENT and OTHERS, Cashville, Saturday, Nov. 5th, 7 p.m.; JAS. H. FLETCHER and OTHERS, Leemont, Saturday, Nov. 5th, 7 p.m.

Stables Forebly Entered and Horse Taken.
On last Sunday in the stables of Mr. Fred Waddy, residing near Accomac C. H., were forcibly entered and horses taken from the place, known as Old Morris was taken away. The perpetrators of the highland lawlessness succeeded in accomplishing their object without discovery, and the participants therefore in the act of breaking into the stables of Mr. Waddy are unknown, but subsequent developments prove that a party of three were seen to drive down to Mr. Waddy's residence, between 1 and 2 o'clock on Saturday night, and on the next day, Wm. Hops of Baltimore, one Cunningham, of Boston, and James W. Bell, of Accomac, stopped at New Church on their way to Maryland, having taken horses in their possession. There they had ordered the horse, but being informed by an inhabitant of the place that they were still in Virginia, the order was countermanded and in great haste the old horse was pointed to Maryland. In an hour to an hour and a half, the answer was given that it was Pilot Boy. Mr. Hops doubtless justifies his participation in the lawlessness by the fact that he is half owner of the horse, and it is due to Mr. Bell, perhaps to say, that the horse was hired to convey the parties to Maryland and had no further connection with it. Mr. Waddy has instituted suit, laying damages at $3,000. Several horses of Hops are in Mr. Waddy's possession, but Hops being indebted, it is said, to Waddy in a much larger sum than they are worth, besides his interest in Morris, another suit will be instituted in Maryland. Hops, the day before the horse was taken, offered to purchase of Mr. Waddy his half interest in the horse, but they could not agree and a sale was not effected.

Letters From the People.
THE PENINSULA ENTERPRISE contains in its issue of October 22nd, an article under the signature of "Sigma" which requires some notice. The author of that article attacks through the press the writer "Kegotank" for a double purpose: 1st, to affect in personally, and 2nd, to denigrate his own great "brothers of the combine." It is one of the pack who 10 years has done the velping in the con non crowd for scraps—not "scaps"—"bedding the plant hings of the knee, that thirft may follow the trail." He is who, holding official position by "divine right" of the ring, in the face of the unredressed complaints of the people, has acquired the name of General Deliverer of Adjutant John Clauses and a Professor of Adjutant Clauses and further—in the face of hints of the public, that he is proposing postponing the execution of official duties that the ring may secure a count in the coming election. That is the "Sigma" who failing to get legitimate argument to answer the short comings of those he would serve has descended into the pool of personal innuendo. With this his article is left to the public, and he informed that if he has the slightest doubt as to who "Kegotank" is his name will be given him by the publisher of this.

Oct. 27, '87.

KEGOTANK.
We are credibly informed that certain Republicans are circulating a false report in certain sections, to the effect that the Democratic nominees for the House of Delegates from Accomac, Dr. A. D. F. Ewell, is not identified with the interests of the people of the county, and in justice to a true man we give the facts in the case. Dr. Ewell was born and reared near Leemont, in the parish of St. James, Accomac county, where he now resides, has been a resident of the county during his life, with the exception of two years in the Confederate army, and a few years in the West after the war, where he practiced his profession as a physician, and from 1864 to 1868 he resided in Accomac county, where he returned to Accomac about ten years ago. He has business and real estate interests in this county and is fully identified with the people thereof. A friend of ours who has known Dr. Ewell for thirty years says, "He is a Christian gentleman of unswerving integrity, well informed in the public affairs of the State and county, and brave and fearless in his adherence to principle, truth and justice. I don't believe the Democratic party could have made a wiser selection." We doubt if the county ever had a representative better calculated to represent the interests of the people in the halls of legislature than Dr. Ewell. Democrats don't forget to go to the polls on Tuesday, the 8th, and cast your vote for Ewell and Wilkins.

Lecture and Oyster Supper.
The members of the new Baptist Church, at Mappsville, will give an oyster supper on the evening of the 10th day of November, to be held at 7 o'clock, at which time a moderate charge will be made. At 7 o'clock of same evening, Rev. W. A. Street will deliver a lecture in which will be related some of the amusing things which came under his observation while he was a soldier during the late war. The lecture will be designed to furnish amusement for the evening. Everybody cordially invited to come. The lecture will be free to all. Seats of supper, for the benefit of the church.
